Gary Hendren, Guy Gasser and Phil Schorr discussed moving to a different CD at a higher rate. This will depend on possible penalties and rates available.

Secretary: New roster mailed with the newsletter. Bill Raible is the newest member. We currently have 59 members.

Vice-President: This position still vacant. A reminder was given to anyone who receives e-mail to be aware of scams targeting organizations.

Business: We need a new Bourse Chair for Stampfest, as Gary Hendren will be stepping down after this year's show. Gary will not be at Stampfest this year, due to conflicting philatelic events.

We need a new Concessionaire for the show. This will be highlighted in the coming newsletter. If we do not have a Concessionaire, we will not have a concession stand.

Contracts for StampFest scheduled to be mail the week of May 21.

10 dealers scheduled for SOCOPEX, Gene Stewart will be hosting an estate auction, about 20 bankers boxes full of material will be available at that show.

Breakfast Meeting will be held June 11, 2018 at Hillary's Roadhouse on Dorsett.

Presentation: Phil Schorr spoke about Roses, their history and spread across trade routes, and showing several genus on stamps from around the world.

Auction: Tom Minor kept book for this month's auction.

Meeting closed at 9:05 pm.
