Announcements:

- The potluck social will be this Saturday, September 28 at 33 E. Glendale in Webster Groves. After a long discussion, it was decided the hours would be 2:00 to 6:00 p.m. A form was passed around asking members what food items they will bring. The club will supply paper and plastic goods, fried chicken, and soda. Feel free to bring any lawn games.
- Reservations for the gym in the Kirkwood CC are now open and Guy will lock down our date for next August for StampFest.
- The room we used for this meeting will be the room we will use until the Kirkwood CC room is again available. We are not being charged for using this room.
- The Christmas Party will take place on December 5.
- Pat raised the possibility of chartering a bus to take our members to GASS next year when it is held in Schaumburg, IL..He will conduct some research on bus costs, etc. We could either go in the morning, attend the show, and come back that evening, or we could stay over one night.

Auction: Richard conducted the auction, with Tom assisting in keeping the records.

Program: Unfortunately, our speaker had car trouble and wasn't able to attend to give his program.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:50 p.m.

Phil Schorr, GMCSA Secretary
